Who would exchange the merry noise of the state of the st who would exchange the middless home where the clock tick can be heard nour after hour in the dull silence? But there are a great many who would like to people the silent house with the children that fate has refused them. Fate is often in this case only another word for ignorance. Many a glad mother dates her happiness from the day she first began the use of Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It often happens that with the cure of female cate womanly organs in sound health, the way is opened for the joy of motherhood. "Favorite Prescription" is a specific for the chronic aliments peculiar to women. It cures them perfectly and permanently. No other medicine be palmed off on you as "just as good."

TERRIFIC STORMS.

Scores of persons were injured and property worth thousands of dollars was destroyed by a storm of cyclonic proportions, which swept over Philadelphia vesterday afternoon. The storm lasted less than half an hour, but in that time it wrought damage greater than that done by any storm that has visited Phila-delph a in recent years. The atorm struck the city at 3 o'clock; half an hour later it passed off, leaving in its wake a trail of ruin. The wind blew at the rate of 50 miles an hour, and rain fell in a deluge. Traffic was tied up completely, people on the street were blown from their feet, 1 nding 20 or 30 feet away, against buildin :s.

From all sections of the city came re-ports of houses unroofed. More than 500 damaged buildings have already been reported.

Mrs. Charles Long, who was buried beneath the wreckage of a fence at Thirteenth and Mt. Vernon streets, was so badly injured that the physicians have abandoned hope of her recovery. Mrs. Long was walking along toe street with her two-year-old haby in her arms. As she was caught beneath the falling fence ough Tr'al.

There is only one test by which to judge of the efficiency of any article and that is by its ability to do that which it is intended to do. Many hair vigors may look nice and smell nice, but the point is—do they eradicate Dandruff and stop falling hair?

No, they do not, but Herpicide does, because it goes to the root of the evil and kills the rerm that attacks the papilla from whence the hair gets its life.

Letters from provinced to destrict the showed the child from her arms. Several men extricated her from the wreckage. At the hospital it was found that her back had been broken and that she bad sustained a fractured skull and several broken ribs.

The storm also affected the suburbs and nearby towns to the southward. Chester was visited by a terrific wind and rain storm which did damage to the extent of hundreds of dollars. Small she shoved the child from her arms.

The storm which gathered power as it sped toward the ocean, after passing over Manhattan bore such an ugly look as it approached the island that all men at work on lofty heights skidded to the ground in a hurry, or many would have been blown out to sea.

The electrical display on the thousands of wires that are in the various amusement enterprises became heavily charged, and for a few moments the effect was terrific. The bolt which struck the 370foot Luna Park tower created a flame that was visibly all over Gravesend and as far west as New Jersey.

Trouble with the Sultau.

Some of the difficulties encountered by the American minister at Constantinople in his efforts to gain an audience with the Sultan last year to obtain settlement of American claims are set forth in the following official pharaphase, made pubiic at the State Department yesterday, of a cablegram received at the time from Sample Bottle Minister Leishman: "Mr. Leishman reports that in the absence of any further communication from the palace about the audience, he attended setamnik this morning, and that the grand master of ceremonies informed him that, on account of important visitors in the harem. His Majesty could not receive him today. In view of the fact that the audience was demanded in the name of the President and that he had twice been put off, it seems to Mr. Leishman to be beneath the dignity of the government of the United States to have him go again to the palace to seek an audience unless positive assurance be given in advance that he will be received by the Sultan. Requests further instructions."

Exasperated by the dilatoriness of the Porte, the Secretary informed Mr. Leish-man that "the American fleet will arrive at Smyrna in a few days, and instructs him to use his best endeavors to obtain a satisfactory answer from the Turkish government before its arrival, and if that government should continue to refuse or to neglect to grant the moderate and reasonable requests of this government, Princess Street, between Union and Lee, to take an indefinite leave and to depart fail to care female diseases when they cannot get the proper information to work on?

This is the reason why thousands and thousands of women are now corresponding with Mrs. Pinkham. To her they can and do give every symptom, so that she really knows more about the true condition of her patients, through her correspondence with them than the physician who personally questions them.

Avenue, St. Louis, Mo., writes:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:

"I cannot thank you enough for what your advice and medicines have done for me. They have done in more good than all the wife female troubles; was very weak; had, mervous prostration, and could not do my work; but I am happy to say Lydia E. Pinkhan:

An eminent physician says that | Mrs. Ella Lee, Frankford, Ind., writes:

An eminent physician says that "Women are not truthful; they will lie to their physician." This statement should be qualified; women do tell the truth, but not the whole truth, to a male physician, but this is only in regard to those painful and troublesome disorders peculiar to their sex.

There can be no more terrible ordeal to a delicate, sensitive, refined woman than to be obliged to answer certain questions when those questions are asked, even by her family physician This is especially the case with unmarried women.

Is it any wonder, then, that women Mrs. J. H. Farmer of 2809 Elliott.
